

Welcome!

Then Jesus opened the disciples' minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them,

"Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all (Luke 24:45-47)

In our prayers, let us remember:

All who grieve or mourn for whatever reason.

Our Royal Family.

Keith Buxton, recuperating.

Becky Hastings, in hospital and undergoing treatment.

Don's friend Julie, who has been diagnosed with cancer and is undergoing tests preparatory to treatment.

Viv's sister Veronica, who is seriously ill.

Colin, who has dementia but is in hospital following a stroke.

Peter Culverhouse (Elizabeth's nephew) who has been diagnosed with cancer.

Lisa Rogers, who is in need of support and guidance.

Laurie Ann Lewin, praying for her to regain strength.

Carlda's Dad, Algon (known as Tom) Lewin, with bone cancer.

Margaret Lewin's Mum, Grace Whiteman.

Care homes (our parish boasts many).

Video recordings of our Sunday services

Video recordings of both parts of our Sunday worship are on our website, or 'A Church Near You', or our Facebook page, hopefully by the Sunday evening.

The Vicar writes:

I have greatly enjoyed the press telling us how the Duke of Edinburgh had a deep and practical faith, that he owned many books on theology, that he enjoyed critically discussing sermons, and that this down to earth, practical, alpha male grounded his life meaningfully on his faith.

I have particularly enjoyed their tone of voice: not withering or pitying or condescending, but simply respecting that was how Prince Philip was.

Most refreshing. Let us all live up to his example and hope to be treated similarly. I myself have therefore booked into a course on how to be an alpha male ...

A prayer for people who mourn

Gracious God,
as we remember before you people who have died,
please surround all of us who mourn with your love.
Be gentle with us in our grief,
protect us from despair,
and give us grace to persevere
and face the future with hope in Jesus Christ our risen Lord. Amen.
