

Welcome!

Breakfast with Jesus. And much more besides.

Readings

To review today's readings: Acts 9:1-6
John 21:1-19
To prepare for next week: Acts 9:36-43
John 10:22-30

Today's hymns

If you would like to follow today's hymns in the hymn books, they are:

- 144 - Dear Lord and Father of mankind
- 150 - Do not be afraid
 - O God, you search me and you know me
(words printed inside)
- 332 - I, the Lord of sea and sky

In our prayers, let us include:

Claire's Dad, Steve, awaiting treatment, and all the family.

Troy, Jennifer's brother, who is losing his battle with cancer. Please remember Jennifer and Derek as well.

Everyone caught up in the events in Ukraine.

Our care homes (our parish boasts many), especially those which are currently under lock-down.

Sarah Sole, with a number of health issues.

Colin, who has dementia but is in hospital following a stroke.

Peter Culverhouse (Elizabeth's nephew) who has been diagnosed with cancer.

Lisa Rogers, who is in need of support and guidance.

Our annual church meetings - Zoom coverage

I had hoped we might be able to Zoom the annual meetings, but it will be difficult to transfer to the hall and very difficult to ensure that every speaker is on mic. So: apologies, but no Zoom.

Recordings of our services

From next week, there will be no recordings available on our website.

We hope to be able to continue with live Zoom of the services. The picture will be less good, but the sound should be good, which arguably is the main thing.

O God, you search me out and know me,

O God, you search me out and know me,
All my thoughts lie open to your gaze.
When I walk or lie down you are before me:
Ever the maker and keeper of my days.

You know my resting and my rising,
You discern my purpose from afar,
And with love everlasting you besiege me:
In ev'ry moment of life or death, you are.

Before a word is on my tongue, Lord,
You have known its meaning through and through.
You are with me beyond my understanding:
God of my present, my past and future, too.

Although your Spirit is upon me,
Still I search for shelter from your light.
There is nowhere on earth I can escape you:
Even the darkness is radiant in your sight.

For you created me and shaped me,
Gave me life within my mother's womb.
For the wonder of who I am I praise you:
Safe in your hands, all creation is made new.
