Today's Readings

Ecclesiastes 1.2, 12-14
Colossians 3.1-11
Luke 12.13-21

Today's hymns

695 To God Be The Glory
379 Lead Us, Heavenly Father, Lead Us
114 Come Down, O Love Divine
580 Rejoice, The Lord Is King

Psalm 149:1-9

¹ Hear this, all you peoples;
listen, all who live in this world,

² both low and high,
rich and poor alike:

³ My mouth will speak words of wisdom;
the meditation of my heart will give you understanding.

⁴ I will turn my ear to a proverb;
with the harp I will expound my riddle:

⁵ Why should I fear when evil days come,
when wicked deceivers surround me—

⁶ those who trust in their wealth and boast of their great riches?

⁷ No one can redeem the life of another or give to God a ransom for them—

⁸ the ransom for a life is costly,
no payment is ever enough—

⁹ so that they should live on forever
and not see decay.

How we conduct our services

Social distancing – keep an empty pew between you if possible
Masks – according to individual discretion
Passing the peace – no physical contact

Singing – yes
Offertory procession – no

Please join us...

... in the hall after the service for tea and coffee.

In our prayers, let us include:

Maureen Hastings moved into a Care Home in Cambridgeshire, on Friday 22nd. We send love and prayers to wish her well as she starts her new life.

Fay and Alan Wales as they struggle with Alan's deteriorating condition and await help from social services.

Oksana, a Ukrainian refugee waiting on a visa to travel to the UK to stay with Alison and Philip.

The family and friends of Evie Watson, who died on 9th July.

All those who work in the care homes in our parish during these high temperatures.

James Barlow as he settles into his life with us as Curate in Charge.

Decorating the Gents Loo

Alison is organising a revamp of the Gents Toilets. Helpers most welcome, from making the tea through “serious sorting” to painting – fellowship and giggles promised in exchange – everyone most welcome. Works begin this week; please speak to Alison to join in the fun.
